Large Works

FOUR SELECTED LARGE-FORMAT PAINTINGS

Imaginary companions take on a larger presence. A blue guardian, a green dinosaur, a yellow leopard and an orange serpent inhabit four expansive mixed-media compositions.

ABOUT THE ARTIST

Yasmine Samir Borro is a Belgian contemporary artist raised in Ivory Coast and based in Brussels. Following fashion studies in Brussels and Paris, she developed a self-taught practice rooted in a lifelong relationship with painting.

Her family's longstanding engagement with African art, including the Mina and Samir Borro collection, provides a cultural context for an independent practice shaped by childhood memories, recurring faces and imagined companions.

EXHIBITIONS & SELECTED PRESENTATIONS

2026 · The Vault Art Gallery, Brussels · Three months
2013 · Street Talk, Minus 1, Beirut · Group exhibition
Galerie des Dominicains, Brussels
Other presentation: 2026 · Espace Centsix, Brussels

Family context: West African Combs: Mina & Samir Borro Collection, 5 Continents, 2025.

COLLECTING THE SELECTION

Four original mixed-media paintings on canvas. Dimensions reproduce the artist-provided formats. Use the link on each artwork page to discover more or enquire about acquisition.

Artist-approved artwork prices in EUR, reproduced for this catalogue edition dated 1 November 2026. Current availability, delivery, framing and acquisition terms must be confirmed before purchase. No sale or gallery representation is implied.

Freedom Made Me Do It

2026 · Mixed media on canvas · 175 × 115 cm (H × W)

Original work

EUR 30,000

An electric-blue guardian moves through a world of masks, creatures and colour. Childhood memories become a place where the unexpected belongs, with raised lines and layered surfaces inviting a closer look.

DISCOVER THE WORK ONLINE

I Drew This Instead Of Growing Up

Mixed media on canvas · 120 × 140 cm

Original work

EUR 20,000

A textured green dinosaur stands among masks, small animals and invented figures. Yellow waves cross a pink and lilac ground, giving this large canvas a playful, insistent rhythm.

DISCOVER THE WORK ONLINE

We Are Not Alone

Mixed media on canvas · 120 × 140 cm

Original work

EUR 20,000

A bright yellow leopard and its smaller companion share a world of faces, figures and flowing pink and green passages.

ENQUIRE ON INSTAGRAM

Snake Power

Mixed media on canvas · 120 × 140 cm

Original work

EUR 20,000

An orange serpent winds through a field of yellow waves, pink and lilac. Masks and small figures gather around its sweeping form.

ENQUIRE ON INSTAGRAM